50X1-HUM

1. Yugoslav customs agents are now being withdrawn from the Zone B-Zone A frontier posts. [redacted] At the time of the Zone B-Yugoslav Customs Union the Zone B administration suggested that Yugoslav customs laws be applied in Zone B. Belgrade understood this to mean that Zone B also wanted Yugoslav customs agents. At the time Belgrade had no customs agents available, but they were sent finally in late October. 50X1-

2. The late arrival of the customs agents surprised Zone B officials who did not question the Belgrade action.

3. Customs agents probably will remain in the Kopar customs office, but only to inspect packages sent to Yugoslavia from abroad via Zone B.
